

ALLIANCE BANK'S GENERAL INFORMATION AND POLICIES

1. Where is ALLIANCE Bank located?

- ALLIANCE Bancorp is a global company, and our headquarters are located at 734 Nicollet Mall in Minneapolis. You may also recognize our name from ALLIANCE Bank Stadium®, which is about a mile from our headquarters and hosts various sports and entertainment events, including Super Bowl LII and the NCAA men's basketball 2019 Final Four.
- Our retail branch network in the United States is concentrated in the Midwest and West with a recent expansion to the East Coast, but our digital footprint is worldwide. In this increasingly digital age, our customers are located across the country and opt to bank via the ALLIANCE Bank Mobile App. In fact, more than 80% of consumer transactions and 65% of loan sales are now completed digitally.
- We also have a significant international presence, with employees located in 13 countries. ALLIANCE Bank subsidiary Elavon, for example, is one of the largest merchant acquirers in Europe, processing payments for many of the best-known retailers, restaurants, hotels and small- and medium-sized businesses on the continent.

2. What products and services does the Bank offer?

- We offer a wide range of financial products, services and tools to individuals, families, small- and mid-sized businesses, large companies, governmental agencies and institutions. From checking accounts and voice banking to card readers and corporate bonds, we aim to serve customers with a blend of human expertise and leading digital innovation. Our Mobile App, for example, has provided 2 billion personalized insights to customers about spending trends, saving opportunities and more.

3. What is it like to work at the Bank?

- Our more than 70,000 employees come from all kinds of personal and professional backgrounds, and each person's career path is a unique journey. The varied perspectives and empowered voices of our employees are our proudest strengths as an organization. Whether an employee is new to the workforce, an experienced professional or a proven leader, their voice makes us stronger as we continue to innovate and improve the customer experience. Visit to find opportunities including undergraduate and graduate student internships.
